

A Powerful GLOBAL NETWORK OF BIOLOGIC ARCHITECTS-adding credibility, momentum, collaboration and support-to all those who realize (and would implement...) what biologic architecture IS..

If you have a living architecture project - see below for resources...

Intro from Dan Winter fractalfiel.com, goldenmean.info, theraphi.net, theimploder.com

Biological architecture is BASED ENTIRELY ON ONE SIMPLE AND OVERWHELMINGLY IMPORTANT PRINCIPLE-(which pretty much makes the library at your architecture university obsolete!)

Which is:

There is certain kind of charge field - which can be described well as CENTRIPETAL - CONJUGATE - FRACTAL - IMPLOSIVE - BIOACTIVE..

WHICH CAUSES YOUR SEEDS (AND YOUR CHILD) TO GROW!

This is dramatically measurable- and CHANGES EVERYTHING about the way architecture should be taught!

When you choose the right (high dielectric / generally biologic) materials- in the right rose like / fractal geometry- YOU CREATE SACRED SPACE AND LIFE! (and Bliss)

We should all be very angry that ignoring this - architects continue building steel and aluminum electromog -boxes!- which demonstrably and measurably WEAKEN germinating seeds- AND your children!?

Our biologic architecture curriculum leads the world (see our international conferences)- in both science and acceptance.

Dan Winter's new 2023 book is OUT! Planckphire.com

PlanckPhire: Perfect Fractal Charge Collapse- CAUSE of Gravity, Consciousness, Life Force, and NEGENTROPY.

Scientists clearly agree perfected charge collapse IS the cause and mechanism of gravity AND consciousness-

NOW for the first time Dan Winter- has proved the cause of perfect (fractal) charge collapse:

PLANCKPHIRE Exact multiples of golden ratio times Planck- Phase Conjugate Charge Implosion -

Proven by equation and with DOZENS of smoking gun examples-like 3 Radii of Hydrogen, EXACTLY the only 2 colors making photosynthesis, exactly the width and height of 1 DNA ladder, Schumann Harmonics, Earth Year, Venus Year, Solar Year, Galactic Year, Precession Year, MUCH more..

Journal Publications included- This is a radical breakthrough explaining the centripetal cause of life, negentropy ..

and WHY objects fall to the ground! .. with IMMENSE practical application - many of which are globally proven already: theraphi.net, flameinmind.com, theimploder.com and...

Practical Bio-Architecture: Sacred Geometry vs Charge Implosion & Life

Alosha Lynnov - part of ConsciousEarth Alliance.com Nov Conference: BioArch- ref: <http://bioarchitects.net> and <http://goldenmean.info/architecture> The electrical science of bio-architecture Sacred space and life force inside a seed are both defined by the same engineering. The charge field must be centripetal or fractal or implosive. Measuring frequencies of buildings prove that harmonic implosion is the true electrical science of creating structures which cause seeds and children to grow, see <http://flameinmind.com/lifeforce>. Our international curriculum teaching biologic architecture and sacred space engineering is now available online. BioArchitects are bioarchitects and creating this living space requires using biologic materials (high dielectric) aligning to magnetic grids and avoiding things like steel, aluminum and electro-smog. The ancients knew how to create sacred space which could heal and cause seeds to activate. It is urgent that we learn this electrical science which in essence is the 'fractal field' of implosion. - Juan Schlosser - <http://www.biarchitects.net> <http://flameinmind.com> Juan Schlosser is a bioarchitect and the founder of Bio Art. The theme of his work is natural energy in all its forms and manifestations. Based in Bali, Juan is co-founder of 'The New Earth Project' and founder of Bio Art. Bio Art is based on the vision of architecture as a medium to redefine architectural practices and contribute to generating a scientific design basis to creating a regenerative architectural system. Applications and experience from a bio-architect Juan will present his professional work as a bio-architect and design engineer. His legendary bamboo structures have unique energetic qualities beneficial to all living systems. Inspired by Dan Winter's life work, Juan will present his research on the importance of living change structures (fractal and centripetal) finally conducive to seed germination in his dome. - life force equals the ability to attract and self-organize capacitive charge, it becomes possible to define the real function of architecture. One reason architecture should look like biology is that biological structures have discovered through evolution the materials and shapes which allow the electrical fields we call life to converge into self organization and self-awareness. 1. What is biological architecture? What are the characteristics of biological architecture? 2. How did you come up with your idea of building a dome in the shape of an egg? 3. Why do you think the world's most mysterious and places of power are dominated by pyramids? 4. Have you been able to measure the influence of such buildings instrumentally? 5. Why were many sacred buildings built in the shape of an egg? 6. What is the effect of a building's shape on a person, its physical, energetic component? 7. Is there any connection between the shape of a building and the Schumann frequency? 8. How can we explain the fact that in buildings of a certain shape people feel an energy rise or drain of energies? 9. Please comment on pictures of some buildings. analysis, synthesis and understanding of the link between Sacred Geometry - the mathematics of life - and Biological Architecture - the designs and constructions made like a capacitor - through the scientific gaze; we call the union of these three elements Biofactual. Everything arose in 2007 when we organized the 1st Congress of Biological Architecture and Sustainable Design at the Universidad Iberoamericana in Mexico City and against all expectations the great auditorium was filled for four days with people from more than 10 countries, 17 states of Mexico and 10 universities. This was followed by a congress in Wales, England with guests from all over Europe.

Since that time we have dedicated ourselves to branching out and expanding the conceptual bases of the geometry of life and applying them in the design of spaces, construction and interior design. This adventure has allowed us to visit dozens of countries and be hired to geometrically advise the works of great architects.

The OVO® - from Klaus Bamberg - of www.klausbamberg.net

All living organisms wrap their offspring in an egg before releasing it into the world. In this way it is protected to receive the vital force necessary for its development. The ovoid shape we commonly find is those of birds - more or less the same: pointed at the top and more rounded at the bottom. Also the pine cone has a similar shape, it being a seed container. If we follow its lines, meaning the empty spaces of the pine cone, we will notice a spiral. This spiral is in Golden Mean proportion or ratio.

The OVO® combines the concepts of the egg as container, accumulator and attractor of Life Force with the Golden Mean Spiral being composed of 5 pairs of Golden Mean spirals that seem to move harmoniously clockwise and counterclockwise.

In sprouting tests the lentil seeds inside the OVO® after one week were visibly longer than the control ones.

It is 3D-printed and can be modified for various applications, which are in gestation.

Disclaimer for humans after the sprout tests: It is advised to use this structure with the awareness one applies to a temple.

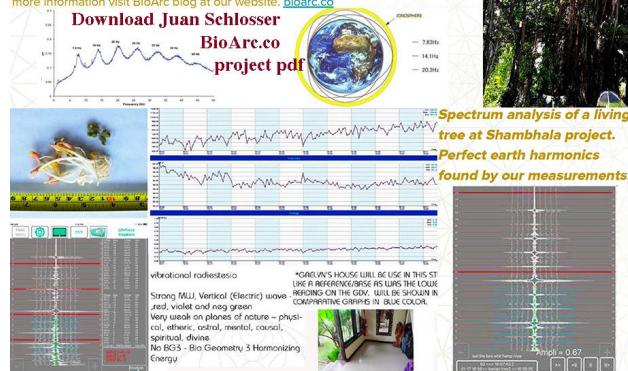

Eventually we might also have the Fractal Fridge-OVO®, with which this creative journey of mine began back in 2004...

In fact BioArc has participated in the development of this project. We utilise advanced spectrum analysis with a state of art EEG headset and functional app, developed by Dan Winter group. This app has two different programs, one, called Flame in Mind, for measuring brain waves (which are an electric field on the millivolts region); and another specifically designed to measure the subtle electric field present in architectural environments. This system uses an iPad and a headset to provide real time spectrum analysis of a given environment. We created an 80 page document where we measure six conventional buildings and four bio-architecture environments, were we also cross-reference these with other types of bioenergetic analysis.
